COACHING CODE OF CONDUCT

The essence of good ethical conduct and practice is summarised below. All instructors must:

- Consider the wellbeing and safety of students before the development of performance.
- Develop an appropriate working relationship with students, based on mutual trust and respect.
- Make sure all activities are appropriate to the age, ability and experience of those taking part.
- Promote the positive aspects of the school i.e. Honour, Duty and Courage.
- Promote the positive aspects of kickboxing in accordance with Olympic ideals and values as defined within the Olympic Charter
- Display consistently high standards of behaviour and appearance.
- Follow all guidelines laid down by national governing body Kickboxing GB and the school.
- Hold appropriate coaching qualifications and insurance cover.
- Never exert undue influence over performers to obtain personal benefit or reward.
- Coaches act as role models, as such they are advised to consider carefully what they post on any social media. Coaches must follow the Social Media policy.
- Never condone rule violations, rough play or the use of prohibited substances.
- Encourage students to value their performances and not just results.
- Encourage and guide students to accept responsibility for their own performance and behaviour.
